

Bryan Roach
Consultant
1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, Suite 200
Washington, DC 20006
broach@credibilityinternational.com

Curriculum Vitae

Bryan is a forensic accountant with experience in complex accounting issues and business valuations.

Professional Experience

Prior to joining Credibility International, Bryan interned at Luttrell Wegis LLP where he provided forensic accounting and financial advisory services.

Representative examples of Bryan's engagement experience include:

Financial Investigations, Fraud & Forensic Accounting

- Performed financial analysis of various bank and investment accounts
- Compiled historical financial data for analysis and litigation purposes
- Reviewed and analyzed various legal documents for relevant inputs in financial model

Other Experience

- Compiled inputs and created proposals for city budgets for a state capital's controller's office
- Led civic charities in rural communities while living and servicing in Guatemala

Education, Skills & Other Accolades

- Master of Science, Accounting; University of Notre Dame, 2019
- Bachelor of Science, Accounting; Brigham Young University, 2018
- Fluent in Spanish
- Eagle Scout